CARLSON UPHOLDS PROHIBITION LAW

FORMER COLORADO GOVERNOR SAYS LABOR IS FOR IT

IS OPPOSED TO L. OF N.

Thinks it Unwise to Depart From Policies of Washington—Looks for International Disagreements

Former Gov. Charles A. Carlson of Colorado made a stirring address at the Chautauqua yesterday afternoon, taking as his subject, "The Price of Progress." In his discussion he spoke of the recent changes in the liquor situation in this country. He told what prohibition meant to the people of this country, particularly the laboring people.

"With the coming of prohibition the cause of mob violence is eliminated," he said. "We still have strikes but they do not have the elements of violence that characterized the strikes of yesterday. Federated labor is strongly for prohibition."

Gov. Carlson made a plea for law and order. "Enforce the laws in this country," he said, "and you need have no fear from the I. W. W. agitators. It is a singular fact that in the states where capital punishment still is in vogue and the goverorns of such states refuse to commute the sentences imposed by the courts there was very little disturbance from the I. W. W. leaders, for such states were given a wide berth."

The governor does not favor the League of Nations because he thinks it unwise to depart from the policies of Washington, who was against entangling European alliances. The main objection to joining with the European countries at this time, according to Gov. Carlson, is that this country is a republic and the countries of Europe are monarchies and if republics and monarchies will not agree on international affairs and the league will come to nothing.

NEW BANK BUILDING AT BURLINGTON JCT.

FIRST NATIONAL TO ERECT NEW STRUCTURE SOON

ALL MODERN FEATURES

Bank to Have a Community Room For Public Meetings—Patronize Home Industry

The First National Bank of Burlington Junction will erect a new building on the site directly across the street north from the building now occupied by the bank, and work will commence just as soon as possible.

This week's Burlington Junction Post had the following about the new bank building.

The building will be one story in heighth, 40x44 feet on the ground. Although the bank has decided to erect a one story building, the structure will be about the heighth of one of two stories. It will be used entirely by the bank.

The walls of the vestibule and lobby will have a base of verde antique marble, and above this will be finely selected American black walnut.

In passing through the vestibule one will enter the square public lobby with a check desk immediately in front of the door, and the three main wickers directly in front, so that the transactions of the general business of the bank will be as convenient as possible.

At the right upon entering the main entrance, will be a low rail dividing an informal corner of the lobby into a waiting room, which will be turned over to customers and will be a place where people may meet or sit down and write a letter if they wish to.

In the corner of the building next to the waiting room will be a private room for the use of bankers. It will be roofed over so that any matters may be talked over with the banker without being heard in any other portion of the building.

In back of the private room will be the officer's space which is separated from the public lobby by an informal low rail. The rail will be entirely of marble on the lobby side and will have a wide marble ledge on the top.

On the left side of the vestibule will be a farmer's or community room where the people of Burlington Junction may have any meetings they may desire. It will be a room where a farmer and his wife may sit and rest after a trip from the country. There will also be a toilet for the use of customers.

Passing on the left side upon entering, under an open arch, one will enter the safe deposit room. The safe deposit vault will be in easy access to this room, and will be so arranged that the customers may go into this vault and get their boxes and either sit down at the table if they wish to look through quickly, or go into a booth where they can go over their papers in privacy.

Special attention was given to the designing and laying out of the work space. It is amply large for any growth which the bank may have and the vault will have a storage room in the basement for the keeping of old records.

The machine will be off from the work space and will be used for the housing of the bookkeeping machine to keep the noise of the operation out of the main bank room.

The entire interior will be carried out in monotone with beautiful combination of walnut and marble base. The floor will be of marble.

The ceiling will be attractively ornamented with wall cornice, and the entire room when completed, will be one of the finest in this section of the state.

After carefully considering the proposition from all angles, the directors of the bank awarded the contract complete to A. Moorman & Co. of St. Paul, Minn. This concern erects and equips bank buildings exclusively.

It will be the policy of the contracting company to purchase all the materials possible in Burlington Junction, and the local merchants are to be given orders for a great amount of the material. The same policy will be followed on labor.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Congress today cleared the decks for speedy action on the recommendations designed to bring down the cost of living, which were to be made by President Wilson before a joint session at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The president has put the finishing touches on the message which is reported to contain seven thousand words. He will tell of the spirit of unrest that has raised its head throughout the country as a result of the constantly increasing costs and will urge immediate consideration of the program which he has offered.

SERIOUS TIE-UP IN N. Y. RAILWAY STRIKE TODAY

Two car trains heavily loaded with policemen were being loaded at frequent intervals on the elevated. Mobs of women attacked the car barns in Brooklyn where the non-strikers were preparing to take out cars. Motormen and conductors were pulled off the cars by main force and finally fled, leaving the cars at the mercy of the crowds.

CHAUTAUQUA NEXT YEAR? IN QUESTION

8:30 p. m.—Band Concert, Banda Roma.

Is Maryville to have a Chantauqua next year? That is a question that is before the people of Maryville at this time. There is no doubt that many people here want Chautauqua next year, but whether or not the guarantee requirement will be met to insure one is the problem that must be soived.

Superintendent Shultz of the Redpath bureau had cards passed out to the people in the audience last night which cards were in the form of a pledge to buy one or more season tickets for next year's course. A goodly number of these were signed but not sufficient to insure a return next season. The cards will be passed out and another attempt made this evening to get an expression of the will of the people in this matter.

A meeting was held this morning of those people interested in Chautauqua, particularly the business men of the city, at 9:45 a. m. in the tent to discuss next year's possibilities. It was decided that there should be a hundred or a hundred and twenty-five guarantors. Not less than fifty, as a last resort, would be asked to sign. A committee is out among the business men this afternoon ascertaining what the will of the business men is in regard to next year's Chautauqua.

Lieut. Milo H. Miller, formerly instructor in aviation at the Kelly Field, Texas, will fly to Maryville from Lenox, Iowa, arriving here tomorrow morning. There is a faint possibility that he may land here this evening.

A landing place will be selected this afternoon. The college grounds were first considered as a probable landing place but that location is not favored by those who have the decision to make. It is thought that a location east of the fair grounds wil be chosen. This has been the "aviation field" for Maryville in recent years.

ACTING GOV. CROSSLEY ASKS AN INVESTIGATION

Requests Prosecuting Attorneys of State to Look up Profiteers—To Punish Offenders

Jefferson City, Aug. 8.—Following is the text of the letter sent by Acting Governor Wallace Crossley to the prosecuting attorneys of the state to investigate profiteering and price-fixing and punish all offenders to the full extent of the law:

The acting governor urges a sane but searching inquiry by the prosecutors in each county in Missouri.

The letter follows:

"You will parodn my calling your attention to a matter in which the comfort, well being and happiness of every man, woman and child in Missouri is involved, and will understand, I am sure, that in what follows here there is no attempt whatever to assume authority or to invoke authority at this time because of the fact that, being temporarily chief executive of the state, I would not care by official act to embark the machinery of state government upon a policy without at least consulting with the governor, who is now absent from the state. So you will please regard this as an informal communication and act accordingly.

"There is a prevalent belief in almost every community from which I have received communication that the high prices of the necessities of existence, the present burdensome living expense is due in part to artificial inflation and profiteering. Prices are constantly climbing and the war is no longer an excuse, nor can high labor cost be altogether responsible.

"Human selfishness and greed for gain must therefore be partly responsible, and, if the commercial pirates abroad in Missouri, if he exists in your community in the guise of a retail merchant in any line of trade, or as a manufacturer, wholesaler or jobber, it would be well for the public to know to what extent and by what methods profits if excessive are exacted.

"In justice, therefore, to the citizens of your community who may be either suspicious or under suspicion themselves, would it not be well to make a thorough investigation and by substantiating the charges compel profiteers to desist, or, by proving the charges untrue, allay all suspicion and clarify the situation?

"If the law is being violated in the territory under your jurisdiction, or, if you suspect that illegal trade combinations or price fixing agreements exist, permit me to state you could give to your county and state no more important service right now than to turn on the light and by fair, impartial investigation of any business, satisfy yourself and the public, whom we both serve, as to whether or not the profiteer is indulging in his nefarious and utterly unpatriotic practice. The patriotism of peace is as essential in preserving our government as the patriotism of war, and the business profiteer or the labor profiteer is a menace to the public welfare. We must hew the line between government and liberty and permit neither abuse of opportunity nor the poisonous doctrines of Bolshevism to find footing.

"May I suggest that the convening of a grand jury at the earliest date practicable would perhaps be the most feasible method of procedure and furnish you first-handed information most speedily? The grand jury, a time-honored American institution, could be instructed along the particular lines of work desired, and the character of men composing it, along with your own high sense of official duty would be sufficient guarantee that the investigation would be conducted reasonably, impartially and thoroughly.

"Prices paid, cost of doing business, prices received and the matter of profits in groceries, meats, dry goods stores, every line of business, with all information safeguarded so as not to react with harmful effect upon the proper conduct of any business, are at this time eminently proper subjects for investigation, and if the grand jury method does not appeal to you, perhaps you may be able to devise some other means.

"Of one thing I feel certain, the moral effect of such an investigation as here pursued will go far toward bringing relief and halting the rapidly mounting cost to the consumer, while at the same time proving valuable to congress and the administration in their efforts to deal equitably, yet forcefully, with the greatest peace problem our nation has ever faced. Should there come a transportation tie-up, even for a limited time, we may be sure profiteers would take advantage of the fresh opportunity, but with public officials and grand juries on the job the public will undoubtedly receive more consideration.

"Let us have a sane inquiry, with everybody keeping their feet on the ground and their heads clear and meet whatever may come, industrially and commercially, as patriotic Missourians."

Minnus was charged with firing his father-in-law's store because he advised his daughter against withdrawing a divorce suit. The judge freed Minnus.

H. C. OF L. HITS NEW YORK VERY HARD

New York, Aug. 8.—In these hectic days when the cost of life's bare necessities are soaring to ungreamed of heights, thousands of workmen's homes in New York are being broken up, family life dispensed with and mothers and children forced into the wage earning ranks to keep even the semblance of a home together.

This is the report of Dr. Louis I. Harris, head of the Bureau of Preventable Diseases of the City Health Department, based on an exhaustive study of conditions in 2,084 representative families.

Conditions as revealed by the investigation are astounding. In 20.89 per cent of the families wages of the head of the family were less than $600 a year. In 30.5 per cent the annual earnings were found to be less than $900 annually, making, in more than one-half of the 2,084 families investigated, the income less than $900 a year, or $17.30 a week.

Dr. Harris declared that after studying the results of the survey he can see no way clear but for the Government to take over control, not only of bread and coal, the two prime necessities, but other things as well.

"There is a delusion about increased wages," said Dr. Harris. "An increased wage that does not keep pace with the increased cost of living is a delusion. The economist must discover a method which will allow the purchasing power of a dollar to keep pace with the wages received.

"Usually when we talk of the high cost of living we are thinking of those who are able to keep up the struggle. But these tables tell of those who are unable to keep up. It isn't generally realized how many of us are sick. Statistics show that the average American working-man loses on an average of seven to nine days a year on account of sickness.

"Sickness breeds poverty, poverty breeds sickness, and on and on goes the endless chain."

Dr. Harris' report shows that in 206 families of those investigated debts have been incurred, children turned out to work, the mother herself forced into the industrial mill and the home thrown open to boarders in order to make ends meet.

CHAMPION EGG EATERS IS NOW IN DISPUTE

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 8.—S. G. Scott of this city is hurt over the report that a Pennsylvania man claims to be the champion egg eater of the world just because he got on the outside of forty-eight eggs in twenty-four hours. Scott is a veteran of the Civil war and declares that on a wager in his younger days he ate forty-seven eggs at one sitting and when asked to eat another to make it four dozen, scornfully replied that he didn't want to make a hog of himself. The doctors, who say there is as much nourishment in an egg as in a pound of beefsteak, give me a good-sized pain," declares Scott. Just suppose I had eaten forty-seven pounds of steak at that one sitting?" Scott says his opponent devoured thirty-seven eggs during the hour's contest.

Penn Yan, N. Y., Aug. 8.—The berry pickers have outdistanced the high cost of living. The farmers in this, one of the best berry producing counties in New York state, have increased their berry pickers 400 per cent—that is, from one cent to five cents a quart—while the cost of living runs a poor second with approximately only about 100 per cent increase over pre-war times.

Its general strength—its always reliable Continental motor—its capacity and ability to carry a substantial over-load, and its superb action on all kinds of roads are things you should also consider.

Sandow is made in five sizes from 1 to 5 tons and there is a Sandow truck for every hauling problem you may have.

Sandow is BIG ENOUGH to do your work. You would not buy a work horse too light to pull a plow, nor do you want a "delivery truck" to haul big loads of grain and live stock in. Therefore you will find Sandow the most, economical truck to buy for farm hauling.

WOMAN SAVED MUCH SUFFERING

By taking Friend's Advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

West Plains, Mo.—"I was all run down in health, had indigestion and terrible cramps every month so I was unable to do anything. I had tried every doctor in West Plains, also every remedy I could think of, without relief. One day when I was suffering greatly a friend was at my house and said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' So I did, and through it, I found relief from my suffering and I really believe it saved my life. It does not seem as though I can say enough in praise of this wonderful medicine for the health it has brought me."—Miss CORA LEE HALL, West Plains, Mo.

Perhaps it may seem an extravagant statement to say that this great remedy saved a life; but women like Mrs. Hall, to whom it has brought health, appreciate the danger and suffering they have escaped too well to doubt it! All who suffer should try it. Why risk life and health without it?

"IS THE HAPPIEST WOMAN IN STATE"

That Is What Mrs. Poe Says After Tanlac Restores Health—Gains Thirty Pounds.

"The results I have gotten from Tanlac are so wonderful that I fell compelled to tell everybody about it," said Mrs. John Poe of 601 South Third street, Pekin, Illinois, while in the Sutliff & Case Drug store at Peoria, recently.

"I don't believe," she continued, "anyone could spffer much more than I did before I got Tanlac and my recovery has made me the happiest woman in Illinois. You would hardly believe me when I tell you I have gained more than thirty pounds, but I have and my daughter here with me will tell you the same thing. Why, my stomach was in such bad fix that everything I ate caused me to suffer agony. Time after time during the past fifteen years the gas would press on my heart so that I would faint. Great drops of perspiration would stand out on me and when I regained consciousness I would be as limp as a rag. Lots of times my neighbors would come in, thinking I was going to die. I didn't dare go any place for fear one of these spells would come on me and I wouldn't ge home. I also suffered beyond words to tell with rheumatism in my feeet and and elbows. I couldn't get my shoes on at times for the swelling in my feet and would have to sit for days with my feet on a pillow in a chair, they hurt me so. My elbows were so stiff I could scarcely bend them and the pain was so great that I could hardly use my arms at all. My misery was so awful that I couldn't sleep but little and I have stayed awake many a night suffering and wondering if there was nothing made that could help me.

"I had taken medicine until I was so discouraged and despondent that I didn't care how soon the end came, for I felt that it wasn't far off. My husband urged me to get Tanlac and, oh, how glad I am that I did, for I began to eat and sleep better in just two or three days after I began taking it. My troubles have all disappeared now and my recovery is the gladdest surprise that ever came to me. I can eat just anything I want and lots of it and never suffer a particle from it. In fact, my stomach seems to be in perfect condition, as good as when I was a girl, and I haven't had one of those awful smothering, fainting spells since I began taking Tanlac, and as to the rheumatism, I never feel a sign of it anymore. My head used to feel dull and hurt me in the mornings, but that is all gone, too, and I don't reckon anyone ever had more cause to feel thankful than I have. I just feel like I owe my life to Tanlac and I only wish I had known about it long ago."

"Tanlac is sold in Maryville by Koch Pharmacy, in Conception Junction by A. M. Colly, in Pickering by H. M. Lincoln, in Burlington Junction by Carter Pharmacy, in Barnard by Bear Drug Co., in Elmo by King Drug Co., in Clearmont by Dr. W. H. Wiley, in Ravenwood by C. A. Shunk, in Arkoe by Rufus R. Smith, and in Hopkins by Hopkins Drug Co."

Hubert Conway Here.

Hubert Conway, who was with the Seventh Engineers, 5th Division, in active service overseas, arrived in Burlington Junction Saturday to join Mrs. Conway, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. Carter.

Mr. Conway had been connected with the headquarters detachment since the armistice was signed, but prior to that he was in active field service, taking part in two major operations, which entitled him to two bronze stars. He expresses himself as very glad to be home again.—Burlington Junction Post.

GOVERNMENT MAN IS HERE INSPECTING PINE TREES

E. A. Kerr of Dep't of Agriculture Inspects White Pine Trees of Vicinity for White Pine Blister Rust

E. A. Kerr, representative of the bureau of Plant Industry, Department of Agriculture, is in Maryville today on an inspection trip.

The purpose of Mr. Kerr's trip is to inspect the white pine trees of this vicinity to find out whether or not they are infected with white pine blister rust. This disease has gained some headway in the white pine forests of the East and it was feared that it was spreading to the West. The disease causes an irregular swelling on the tree limbs during and between the months of June and September. The following spring this swelling breaks out into blisters and the tree gradually dies. White pine blister rust cannot be transmitted from one white pine tree to another or from a pine tree to any other kind of a tree. It is transmitted from a white pine to a gooseberry or current bush, where the disease germinates, and is carried by the wind to infect other white pines in the vicinity.

Mr. Kerr has for his territory this summer the states of Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri. So far, he has not discovered any evidence of this dreaded disease in Misouri.

The disease was introduced in this country by shipments of infected pine trees from Europe to this country. The government wants to rid the white pines of this country from the disease, which threatens to destroy the forests of this country in some sections.

Had Narrow Escape.

While driving to the Nodaway river south of Quitman Friday evening on a fishing expedition Mr. and Mrs. John Aley and George Aley of Maryville, and Mrs. Elva Gee of this place had an experience they do not care to repeat soon.

The bridge this side of the Quitman cemetery was in bad shape, but the driver thought he could cross it without difficulty. Weeds had grown right up to the approach of the bridge and as Mr. Aley made a turn to avoid a bad place in the floor his car wheels ran off on one side. Fortunately the car did not topple off, but hung suspended on the edge of the structure. This was all that saved the party from falling into the deep ditch.

A garage man from Quitman happened along and brought the party home. The car was quite badly damaged and Mr. Aley had to have it repaired before he could drive it home.

A new bridge is being built to replace the old one.—Burlington Junction Post.

"I have been up against it for the past 3 years suffering from pain in my stomach and side until I was considering giving up my grocery business. Doctors and medicine did not help me. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Maryville Pharmacy and druggists Everywhere.—Adv.

MISSOURI STATE SAIR UNAFFECTED BY R.R. STRIKE

Many Exhibits Received Before Walkouts—Expect to Shatter All Records

Sedalia, Aug. 8.—The railroad strike has not interfered and will not interfere with the success of Missouri's annual State Fair, which starts here Saturday morning, Aug 9, and continues until Aug. 16.

Hundreds of cars of exhibits arrived in Sedalia before the widespread series of walkouts was begun, and even during the unsettled conditions prevailing during the last three days, sixty additional cars have been received at the Fair grounds here.

Secretary E. G. Bylander stated this afternoon that the agricultural exhibits, live stock shows, and machinery displays were absolutely complete, and that the big Fair would start off with a bang Saturday morning.

"We have more dairy cattle, beef breed cattle, hogs, swine and sheep on the grounds right now than were here last year when entries broke all records," he stated.

The racing horses have been here for three weeks. Sedalia opens the midwest fair circuit, and the race horse men have been here in advance to train their entries. The automobiles have arrived for Monday's auto races. Louis Gertson's exhibit plane is here, and has been assembled and is ready for his first flight Monday. The scenery, props, and fire works for our big sham battle, spectacling the battle of St. Mihiel are all ready in place on the field. Hundreds of concession men and carnical attractions are on the grounds, and even if the entire railroad system should be tied up, we would still have a Fair so big that it would break all records.

Thousands of people will motor to Sedalia for the event, and the local street car companies have placed twenty extra cars on the line to the Fair grounds, and a Kansas City passenger bus company is sending nine big motor busses to give jitney service from downtown to the Fair grounds during the week. We are all set for the biggest and best Fair in Missouri history, and rumors that it has been called off are absolutely false.

Nearly Had an Accident.

As an automobile from Maryville containing two men and two women, whose names were not learned, was going up the steep hill just south of the river bridge Sunday, the driver killed his engine and the car came back down the hill and would have landed in the river had it not been for the timbers that held the grade, which stopped it. With the aid of a team and block and tackle the car was pulled up the bank and after ascertaining that no serious injury was done to it the party proceeded on its way to the Big Lake.—Skidmore News.

Sets Threshing Record.

Threshing 1,301 bushels of oats between 2 o'clock in the afternoon and sundown will keep all hands busy, but that's what was accomplished by Walter Deneen's threshing machine one day last week. The grain was grown on the old J. C. Carter farm by Everett Trosper, on 50 acres of land.

Nearly 50 per cent more straw had to be handled in this crop than there would have been in an ordinary year, and that makes the record all the more remarkable. The machine was set twice for the job too, and all things considered it was "some threshing."

Walter had J. F. Hackett's separator, and Lester Hackett hauled the water. A total of 545 bushels was threshed with a stop of any kind.

The afternoon's work holds the record for this year, so far as has been reported.—Burlington Junction Post.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Parle and son, Francis, are visiting in Atchison, Kan., for a few days with Sister Mary Augusta of Mt. St. Scholastica Academy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parle.

CARLSON UPHOLDS PROHIBITION LAW

FORMER COLORADO GOVERNOR SAYS LABOR IS FOR IT

IS OPPOSED TO L. OF N.

Thinks It Unwise to Depart From Policies of Washington—Looks for International Disagreements

Former Gov. Charles A. Carlson of Colorado made a stirring address at the Chautauqua yesterday afternoon, taking as his subject, "The Price of Progress." In his discussion he spoke of the recent changes in the liquor situation in this country. He told what prohibition meant to the people of this country, particularly the laboring people.

"With the coming of prohibition the cause of mob violence is eliminated," he said. "We still have strikes but they do not have the elements of violence that characterized the strikes of yesterday. Federated labor is strongly for prohibition."

Gov. Carlson made a plea for law and order. "Enforce the laws in this country," he said, "and you need have no fear from the I. W. W. agitators. It is a singular fact that in the states where capital punishment still is in vogue and the goverorns of such states refuse to commute the sentences imposed by the courts there was very little disturbance from the I. W. W. leaders, for such states were given a wide berth."

The governor does not favor the League of Nations because he thinks it unwise to depart from the policies of Washington, who was against entangling European alliances. The main objection to joining with the European countries at this time, according to Gov. Carlson, is that this country is a republic and the countries of Europe are monarchies and at republics and monarchies will not agree on international affairs and the league will come to nothing.

NEW BANK BUILDING AT BURLINGTON JCT.

FIRST NATIONAL TO ERECT NEW STRUCTURE SOON

ALL MODERN FEATURES

Bank to Have a Community Room For Public Meetings—Patronize Home Industry

The First National Bank of Burlington Junction will erect a new building on the site directly across the street north from the building now occupied by the bank, and work will commence just as soon as possible.

This week's Burlington Junction Post had the following about the new bank building.

The building will be one story in heighth, 40x44 feet on the ground. Although the bank has decided to erect a one story building, the structure will be about the heighth of one of two stories. It will be used entirely by the bank.

The walls of the vestibule and lobby will have a base of verde antique marble, and above this will be finely selected American black walnut.

In passing through the vestibule one will enter the square public lobby with a check desk immediately in front of the door, and the three main wickers directly in front, so that the transactions of the general business of the bank will be as convenient as possible.

At the right upon entering the main entrance, will be a low rail dividing an informal corner of the lobby into a waiting room, which will be turned over to customers and will be a place where people may meet or sit down and write a letter if they wish to.

In the corner of the building next to the waiting room will be a private room for the use of bankers. It will be roofed over so that any matters may be talked over with the banker without being heard in any other portion of the building.

In back of the private room will be the officer's space which is separated from the public lobby by an informal low rail. The rail will be entirely of marble on the lobby side and will have a wide marble ledge on the top.

On the left side of the vestibule will be a farmer's or community room where the people of Burlington Junction may have any meetings they may desire. It will be a room where a farmer and his wife may sit and rest after a trip from the country. There will also be a toilet for the use of customers.

Passing on the left side upon entering, under an open arch, one will enter the safe deposit room. The safe deposit vault will be in easy access to this room, and will be so arranged that the customers may go into this vault and get their boxes and either sit down at the table if they wish to look through quickly, or go into a booth where they can go over their papers in privacy.

Special attention was given to the designing and laying out of the work space. It is amply large for any growth which the bank may have and the vault will have a storage room in the basement for the keeping of old records.

The machine will be off from the work space and will be used for the housing of the bookkeeping machine to keep the noise of the operation out of the main bank room.

The entire interior will be carried out in monotone with beautiful combination of walnut and marble base. The floor will be of marble.

The ceiling will be attractively ornamented with wall cornice, and the entire room when completed, will be one of the finest in this section of the state.

After carefully considering the proposition from all angles, the directors of the bank awarded the contract complete to A. Moorman & Co. of St. Paul, Minn. This concern erects and equips bank buildings exclusively.

It will be the policy of the contracting company to purchase all the materials possible in Burlington Junction, and the local merchants are to be given orders for a great amount of the material. The same policy will be followed on labor.

Washington, Aug. 8.—Congress today cleared the decks for speedy action on the recommendations designed to bring down the cost of living, which were to be made by President Wilson before a joint session at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The president has put the finishing touches on the message which is reported to contain seven thousand words. He will tell of the spirit of unrest that has raised its head throughout the country as a result of the constantly increasing costs and will urge immediate consideration of the program which he has offered.

SERIOUS TIE-UP IN N. Y. RAILWAY STRIKE TODAY

Mobs of Women Attack Non-Strikers Preparing to Take Cars From the Barns—Armed Police on Guard

New York, Aug. 8.—The street railway strike of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company is more serious today than at any other time since it was called. Less than fifteen surface cars are being operated during the morning, and so menacing had the strikers become that the policemen aboard had been increased from one to five. Two car trains heavily loaded with policemen were being loaded at frequent intervals on the elevated. Mobs of women attacked the car barns in Brooklyn where the non-strikers were preparing to take out cars. Motormen and conductors were pulled off the cars by main force and finally fled, leaving the cars at the mercy of the crowds.

PEOPLE OF MARYVILLE TO DECIDE ON MATTER

AN AIRPLANE TOMORROW

"The Melting Pot" Feature of Program Tonight—Maryville Children in Play Tomorrow Night

8:00 p. m.—Dramatic play, "The Magic Piper" — Junior Chautauqua Folk.

8:30 p. m.—Band Concert, Banda Roma.

Is Maryville to have a Chautauqua next year? That is a question that is before the people of Maryville at this time. There is no doubt that many people here want Chautauqua next year, but whether or not the guarantee requirement will be met to insure one is the problem that must be solved.

Superintendent Shultz of the Redpath bureau had cards passed out to the people in the audience last night which cards were in the form of a pledge to buy one or more season tickets for next year's course. A goodly number of these were signed but not sufficient to insure a return next season. The cards will be passed out and another attempt made this evening to get an expression of the will of the people in this matter.

A meeting was held this morning of those people interested in Chautauqua, particularly the business men of the city, at 9:45 a. m. in the tent to discuss next year's possibilities. It was decided that there should be a hundred or a hundred and twenty-five guarantors. Not less than fifty, as a last resort, would be asked to sign. A committee is out among the business men this afternoon ascertaining what the will of the business men is in regard to next year's Chautauqua.

Lieut. Milo H. Miller, formerly instructor in aviation at the Kelly Field, Texas, will fly to Maryville from Lenox, Iowa, arriving here tomorrow morning. There is a faint possibility that he may land here this evening.

A landing place will be selected this afternoon. The college grounds were first considered as a probable landing place but that location is not favored by those who have the decision to make. It is thought that a location east of the fair grounds wil be chosen. This has been the "aviation field" for Maryville in recent years.

ACTING GOV. CROSSLEY ASKS AN INVESTIGATION

Requests Prosecuting Attorneys of State to Look up Profiteers—To Punish Offenders

Jefferson City, Aug. 8.—Following is the text of the letter sent by Acting Governor Wallace Crossley to the prosecuting attorneys of the state to investigate profiteering and price-fixing and punish all offenders to the full extent of the law:

The acting governor urges a sane but searching inquiry by the prosecutors in each county in Missouri.

The letter follows:

"You will parodn my calling your attention to a matter in which the comfort, well being and happiness of every man, woman and child in Missouri is involved, and will understand, I am sure, that in what follows here there is no attempt whatever to assume authority or to invoke authority at this time because of the fact that, being temporarily chief executive of the state, I would not care by official act to embark the machinery of state government upon a policy without at least consulting with the governor, who is now absent from the state. So you will please regard this as an informal communication and act accordingly.

"There is a prevalent belief in almost every community from which I have received communication that the high prices of the necessities of existence, the present burdensome living expense is due in part to artificial inflation and profiteering. Prices are constantly climbing and the war is no longer an excuse, nor can high labor cost be altogether responsible.

"Human selfishness and greed for gain must therefore be partly responsible, and, if the commercial pirates abroad in Missouri, if he exists in your community in the guise of a retail merchant in any line of trade, or as a manufacturer, wholesaler or jobber, it would be well for the public to know to what extent and by what methods profits if excessive are exacted.

"In justice, therefore, to the citizens of your community who may be either suspicious or under suspicion themselves, would it not be well to make a thorough investigation and by substantiating the charges compel profiteers to desist, or, by proving the charges untrue, allay all suspicion and clarify the situation?

"If the law is being violated in the territory under your jurisdiction, or, if you suspect that illegal trade combinations or price fixing agreements exist, permit me to state you could give to your county and state no more important service right now than to turn on the light and by fair, impartial investigation of any business, satisfy yourself and the public, whom we both serve, as to whether or not the profiteer is indulging in his nefarious and utterly unpatriotic practice. The patriotism of peace is as essential in preserving our government as the patriotism of war, and the business profiteer or the labor profiteer is a menace to the public welfare. We must hew the line between government and liberty and permit neither abuse of opportunity nor the poisonous doctrines of Bolshevism to find footing.

"May I suggest that the convening of a grand jury at the earliest date practicable would perhaps be the most feasible method of procedure and furnish you first-handed information most speedily? The grand jury, a time-honored American institution, could be instructed along the particular lines of work desired, and the character of men composing it, along with your own high sense of official duty would be sufficient guarantee that the investigation would be conducted reasonably, impartially and thoroughly.

"Prices paid, cost of doing business, prices received and the matter of profits in groceries, meats, dry goods stores, every line of business, with all information safeguarded so as not to react with harmful effect upon the proper conduct of any business, are at this time eminently proper subjects for investigation, and if the grand jury method does not appeal to you, perhaps you may be able to devise some other means.

"Of one thing I feel certain, the moral effect of such an investigation as here pursued will go far toward bringing relief and halting the rapidly mounting cost to the consumer, while at the same time proving valuable to congress and the administration in their efforts to deal equitably, yet forcefully, with the greatest peace problem our nation has ever faced. Should there come a transportation tie-up, even for a limited time, we may be sure profiteers would take advantage of the fresh opportunity, but with public officials and grand juries on the job the public will undoubtedly receive more consideration.

"Let us have a sane inquiry, with everybody keeping their feet on the ground and their heads clear and meet whatever may come, industrially and commercially, as patriotic Missourians."

SAM'S ALIBI WAS GOOD.

H. C. OF L. HITS NEW YORK VERY HARD

New York, Aug. 8.—In these hectic days when the cost of life's bare necessities are soaring to ungreamed of heights, thousands of workmen's homes in New York are being broken up, family life dispensed with and mothers and children forced into the wage earning ranks to keep even the semblance of a home together.

This is the report of Dr. Louis I. Harris, head of the Bureau of Preventable Diseases of the City Health Department, based on an exhaustive study of conditions in 2,084 representative families.

Conditions as revealed by the investigation are astounding. In 20.89 per cent of the families wages of the head of the family were less than $600 a year. In 30.5 per cent the annual earnings were found to be less than $900 annually, making, in more than one-half of the 2,084 families investigated, the income less than $900 a year, or $17.30 a week.

Dr. Harris declared that after studying the results of the survey he can see no way clear but for the Government to take over control, not only of bread and coal, the two prime necessities, but other things as well.

"There is a delusion about increased wages," said Dr. Harris. "An increased wage that does not keep pace with the increased cost of living is a delusion. The economist must discover a method which will allow the purchasing power of a dollar to keep pace with the wages received.

"Usually when we talk of the high cost of living we are thinking of those who are able to keep up the struggle. But these tables tell of those who are unable to keep up. It isn't generally realized how many of us are sick. Statistics show that the average American working-man loses on an average of seven to nine days a year on account of sickness.

"Sickness breeds poverty, poverty breeds sickness, and on and on goes the endless chain."

Dr. Harris' report shows that in 206 families of those investigated debts have been incurred, children turned out to work, the mother herself forced into the industrial mill and the home thrown open to boarders in order to make ends meet.

CHAMPION EGG EATERS IS NOW IN DISPUTE

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 8.—S. G. Scott of this city is hurt over the report that a Pennsylvania man claims to be the champion egg eater of the world just because he got on the outside of forty-eight eggs in twenty-four hours. Scott is a veteran of the Civil war and declares that on a wager in his younger days he ate forty-seven eggs at one sitting and when asked to eat another to make it four dozen, scornfully replied that he didn't want to make a hog of himself. The doctors, who say there is as much nourishment in an egg as in a pound of beefsteak, give me a good-sized pain," declares Scott. Just suppose I had eaten forty-seven pounds of steak at that one sitting?" Scott says his opponent devoured thirty-seven eggs during the hour's contest.

DOES A TEACHER LOSE LICENSE IF SHE WEDS?

Tulsa, Okla., Aug. 8.—"If I marry one of the teachers who has already signed her contract for this fall, will she be disqualified?" This was the question up to J. C. Stearley, clerk of the Tulso board of education.

Admitting the question "too deep for me," Stearley advised the man to call on Superintendent Whiteford.

BERRY PICKERS BEAT H. C. OF L.

Penn Yan, N. Y., Aug. 8.—The berry pickers have outdistanced the high cost of living. The farmers in this, one of the best berry producing counties in New York state, have increased their berry pickers 400 per cent—that is, from one cent to five cents a quart—while the cost of living runs a poor second with approximately only about 100 per cent increase over pre-war times.

WOMAN SAVED MUCH SUFFERING

By taking Friend's Advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

West Plains, Mo.—"I was all run down in health, had indigestion and terrible cramps every month so I was unable to do anything. I had tried every doctor in West Plains, also every remedy I could think of, without relief. One day when I was suffering greatly a friend was at my house and said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' So I did, and through it, I found relief from my suffering and I really believe it saved my life. It does not seem as though I can say enough in praise of this wonderful medicine for the health it has brought me."—Miss CORA LEE HALL, West Plains, Mo.

Perhaps it may seem an extravagant statement to say that this great remedy saved a life; but women like Mrs. Hall, to whom it has brought health, appreciate the danger and suffering they have escaped too well to doubt it! All who suffer should try it. Why risk life and health without it?

IS THE HAPPIEST WOMAN IN STATE

That Is What Mrs. Poe Says After Tanlac Restores Health—Gains Thirty Pounds.

"The results I have gotten from Tanlac are so wonderful that I fell compelled to tell everybody about it," said Mrs. John Poe of 601 South Third street, Pekin, Illinois, while in the Sutliff & Case Drug store at Peoria, recently.

"I don't believe," she continued, "anyone could spffer much more than I did before I got Tanlac and my recovery has made me the happiest woman in Illinois. You would hardly believe me when I tell you I have gained more than thirty pounds, but I have and my daughter here with me will tell you the same thing. Why, my stomach was in such bad fix that everything I ate caused me to suffer agony. Time after time during the past fifteen years the gas would press on my heart so that I would faint. Great drops of perspiration would stand out on me and when I regained consciousness I would be as limp as a rag. Lots of times my neighbors would come in, thinking I was going to die. I didn't dare go any place for fear one of these spells would come on me and I wouldn't ge home. I also suffered beyond words to tell with rheumatism in my feeet and and elbows. I couldn't get my shoes on at times for the swelling in my feet and would have to sit for days with my feet on a pillow in a chair, they hurt me so. My elbows were so stiff I could scarcely bend them and the pain was so great that I could hardly use my arms at all. My misery was so awful that I couldn't sleep but little and I have stayed awake many a night suffering and wondering if there was nothing made that could help me.

"I had taken medicine until I was so discouraged and despondent that I didn't care how soon the end came, for I felt that it wasn't far off. My husband urged me to get Tanlac and, oh, how glad I am that I did, for I began to eat and sleep better in just two or three days after I began taking it. My troubles have all disappeared now and my recovery is the gladdest surprise that ever came to me. I can eat just anything I want and lots of it and never suffer a particle from it. In fact, my stomach seems to be in perfect condition, as good as when I was a girl, and I haven't had one of those awful smothering, fainting spells since I began taking Tanlac, and as to the rheumatism, I never feel a sign of it anymore. My head used to feel dull and hurt me in the mornings, but that is all gone, too, and I don't reckon anyone ever had more cause to feel thankful than I have. I just feel like I owe my life to Tanlac and I only wish I had known about it long ago."

"Tanlac is sold in Maryville by Koch Pharmacy, in Conception Junction by A. M. Colly, in Pickering by H. M. Lincoln, in Burlington Junction by Carter Pharmacy, in Barnard by Bear Drug Co., in Elmo by King Drug Co., in Clearmont by Dr. W. H. Wiley, in Ravenwood by C. A. Shunk, in Arkoe by Rufus R. Smith, and in Hopkins by Hopkins Drug Co."

Hubert Conway Here.

Hubert Conway, who was with the Seventh Engineers, 5th Division, in active service overseas, arrived in Burlington Junction Saturday to join Mrs. Conway, who has been visiting at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. Carter.

Mr. Conway had been connected with the headquarters detachment since the armistice was signed, but prior to that he was in active field service, taking part in two major operations, which entitled him to two bronze stars. He expresses himself as very glad to be home again.—Burlington Junction Post.

GOVERNMENT MAN IS HERE INSPECTING PINE TREES

E. A. Kerr of Dep't of Agriculture Inspects White Pine Trees of Vicinity for White Pine Blister Rust

E. A. Kerr, representative of the bureau of Plant Industry, Department of Agriculture, is in Maryville today on an inspection trip.

The purpose of Mr. Kerr's trip is to inspect the white pine trees of this vicinity to find out whether or not they are infected with white pine blister rust. This disease has gained some headway in the white pine forests of the East and it was feared that it was spreading to the West. The disease causes an irregular swelling on the tree limbs during and between the months of June and September. The following spring this swelling breaks out into blisters and the tree gradually dies. White pine blister rust cannot be transmitted from one white pine tree to another or from a pine tree to any other kind of a tree. It is transmitted from a white pine to a gooseberry or current bush, where the disease germinates, and is carried by the wind to infect other white pines in the vicinity.

Mr. Kerr has for his territory this summer the states of Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri. So far, he has not discovered any evidence of this dreaded disease in Misouri.

The disease was introduced in this country by shipments of infected pine trees from Europe to this country. The government wants to rid the white pines of this country from the disease, which threatens to destroy the forests of this country in some sections.

Had Narrow Escape.

While driving to the Nodaway river south of Quitman Friday evening on a fishing expedition Mr. and Mrs. John Aley and George Aley of Maryville, and Mrs. Elva Gee of this place had an experience they do not care to repeat soon.

The bridge this side of the Quitman cemetery was in bad shape, but the driver thought he could cross it without difficulty. Weeds had grown right up to the approach of the bridge and as Mr. Aley made a turn to avoid a bad place in the floor his car wheels ran off on one side. Fortunately the car did not topple off, but hung suspended on the edge of the structure. This was all that saved the party from falling into the deep ditch.

A garage man from Quitman happened along and brought the party home. The car was quite badly damaged and Mr. Aley had to have it repaired before he could drive it home.

A new bridge is being built to replace the old one.—Burlington Junction Post.

GROCER UP AGAINST IT.

"I have been up against it for the past 3 years suffering from pain in my stomach and side until I was considering giving up my grocery business. Doctors and medicine did not help me. I heard of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, through a friend in Buffalo. The first dose gave me more benefit than all the medicine I had taken before and am now feeling as well as ever in my life." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded.—Maryville Pharmacy and druggists Everywhere.—Adv.

MISSOURI STATE SAIR UNAFFECTED BY R.R. STRIKE

Many Exhibits Received Before Walkouts—Expect to Shatter All Records

Sedalia, Aug. 8.—The railroad strike has not interfered and will not interfere with the success of Missouri's annual State Fair, which starts here Saturday morning, Aug 9, and continues until Aug. 16.

Hundreds of cars of exhibits arrived in Sedalia before the widespread series of walkouts was begun, and even during the unsettled conditions prevailing during the last three days, sixty additional cars have been received at the Fair grounds here.

Secretary E. G. Bylander stated this afternoon that the agricultural exhibits, live stock shows, and machinery displays were absolutely complete, and that the big Fair would start off with a bang Saturday morning.

"We have more dairy cattle, beef breed cattle, hogs, swine and sheep on the grounds right now than were here last year when entries broke all records," he stated.

The racing horses have been here for three weeks. Sedalia opens the midwest fair circuit, and the race horse men have been here in advance to train their entries. The automobiles have arrived for Monday's auto races. Louis Gertson's exhibit plane is here, and has been assembled and is ready for his first flight Monday. The scenery, props, and fire works for our big sham battle, spectacling the battle of St. Mihiel are all ready in place on the field. Hundreds of concession men and carnical attractions are on the grounds, and even if the entire railroad system should be tied up, we would still have a Fair so big that it would break all records.

Thousands of people will motor to Sedalia for the event, and the local street car companies have placed twenty extra cars on the line to the Fair grounds, and a Kansas City passenger bus company is sending nine big motor busses to give jitney service from downtown to the Fair grounds during the week. We are all set for the biggest and best Fair in Missouri history, and rumors that it has been called off are absolutely false.

LOST OR STRAYED—About four weeks ago, a black male hog with white markings. Notify Dale Wiley, Pickering, Mo. 719*

Nearly Had an Accident.

As an automobile from Maryville containing two men and two women, whose names were not learned, was going up the steep hill just south of the river bridge Sunday, the driver killed his engine and the car came back down the hill and would have landed in the river had it not been for the timbers that held the grade, which stopped it. With the aid of a team and block and tackle the car was pulled up the bank and after ascertaining that no serious injury was done to it the party proceeded on its way to the Big Lake.—Skidmore News.

Sets Threshing Record.

Threshing 1,301 bushels of oats between 2 o'clock in the afternoon and sundown will keep all hands busy, but that's what was accomplished by Walter Deneen's threshing machine one day last week. The grain was grown on the old J. C. Carter farm by Everett Trosper, on 50 acres of land.

Nearly 50 per cent more straw had to be handled in this crop than there would have been in an ordinary year, and that makes the record all the more remarkable. The machine was set twice for the job too, and all things considered it was "some threshing."

Walter had J. F. Hackett's separator, and Lester Hackett hauled the water. A total of 545 bushels was threshed with a stop of any kind.

The afternoon's work holds the record for this year, so far as has been reported.—Burlington Junction Post.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Parle and son, Francis, are visiting in Atchison, Kan., for a few days with Sister Mary Augusta of Mt. St. Scholastica Academy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parle.
